Also to make icon to display constantly at approximately the same position to prevent increasing memory workload for user.

This is screen when user enter the booth. the chat room will display the avatar of booth the user at the top of the screen to indicate that they are the only person inside the room and also joined the room.

This is where the interaction stage will begin.
Once all the interaction is done, if both of the user are happy with each other and also on the agreements, then a contract will be initiated and they need to accept the contract to make sure that the deal is done between them.

Once the deal is done, each party can give a rating to each other.

Once the deal is confirmed, user's profile page will be updated with information regarding on the room mate that has just been found to indicate to the rest of the user that this user has already found a room or room mate, and the system will no longer take this user as consideration when other user is searching for a room mate.
